I. These Guidelines are established for the Insurer to implement the determination of premiums as specified in Article 30 of the National Health Insurance Act (hereinafter referred to as the Act).

II. Records of insurance enrollment and withdrawal defined by these guidelines shall comply with the legitimate identity as specified in the Act.

III. In any of the following circumstances, the Insurer shall collect, on the last day of that month, the premium for the entire month from the insurance applicant unit to which the Insured belongs:
   (I) The Insured remains insured under the same group insurance applicant unit during the month.
   (II) The Insured has one or more records of insurance enrollment and withdrawal during the month. However, if the Insured withdraws on the last day of the month, the Insurer shall determine the first day of next month as the date of withdrawal.

IV. In the event of the following circumstances in which withdrawal takes place on the last day of the month, the second paragraph of the proceeding article shall not apply.
   (I) Death.
   (II) Other circumstances or reasons that meet the requirements as specified in Article 13 of the Act.
